

Teddies on a Rainbow NEWSLETTER

January 2018

Dear Families,

Happy New Year to you all!

We hope that you have all enjoyed the holidays and are ready for the year ahead.

Message from the manager

"I am delighted that our recent Ofsted report highlighted the most important area of care as 'Outstanding'. Having been a parent myself, and having spoken to numerous parents and carers in the past, the key areas of choosing a nursery is the love, care and happiness for a child and learning boundaries and good behaviour. This is the basis of our Reggio Emilia ethos and worthily deserved outstanding."

Helen Strange

Please could we ask you to sign and return your child's learning journey and return their red folder so that we can continue with our observations of your child's learning.

A couple of notes for your diary! Thursday 1st March is World Book Day - if your child attends on that day they are very welcome to bring in a favourite book to share. Book Day vouchers will be given out. If you would like to make a donation we will be collecting for the International Charity of Book Aid. Fluffies and Reptiles will be visiting nursery on Thursday 17th July – more details to follow!

Dates for your Diary

'Fluffies and Reptiles' are visiting on 17th July

Nursery closes 4pm Friday 9th
February and reopens Monday 19th

If your child is with us from September 2018, please would you confirm the sessions you require as places are limited and we always offer to existing parents first.

During this half term we will be celebrating Shrove Tuesday with pancakes. Please let us know if we need to make any adjustments for your child's dietary needs.

Next term your child's key teacher will be sharing your child's next steps and goals more clearly with you so that you can help support this at home

Please ensure that your child has named and suitable clothing for this cold and often soggy time of year.

If you would like your child to change their library book- please could you take it out of their red bag and hand to staff (this is listed in your 'Welcome Pack' under heading of helpful things

Nursery to Home books- if you have a carer, grandparent or childminder dropping your child off; please remind them to hand the book to staff and not leave in red bag

Thank you very much for your generous donations – together we raised £156
